and

Drumming Workshop taught by Melissa Young

SATURDAY NIGHT DANCE PARTY—International Potpourri: Wear a costume from your favorite country --or mix and match costumes from different countries! All the world's a stage.

Old Country Weekend

October 17-19, 2014 Cross Point Camp, Kingston, OK

GENERAL INFO: The camp, located on the Oklahoma side of Lake Texoma, about 2½ hours from Oklahoma City and Dallas, has a wooden dance floor, scenic views, and dorm-style heated/air-conditioned cabins. Each cabin has two sleeping rooms with 8 bunks, 2 singles and a shared bathroom. Semi-private cabins are available on a first-serve basis. Meals begin with breakfast on Saturday and end with breakfast on Sunday. Refreshments are provided for parties. Bring your own sheets, blankets, pillows, towels and toiletries. Other items that may be useful: flashlight, earplugs, drinking cup, drum for the drumming workshop, and other musical instruments. Cross Point Camp has a strict non-alcohol policy.

SCHOLARSHIPS: A part-time scholarship will be available this year and will be awarded based on need. Applications for scholarships are due by Oct. 1st. Recipients may be asked to help with camp tasks.

SPECIAL INFO: The camp provides inexpensive meals, served cafeteria-style. Vegetarian selections, such as a salad bar at the lunch and dinner meals and cereal at breakfast, are available. We also provide snacks throughout the day. We will attempt to house no more than 5 persons per dorm room and house you with people of your choice. If private accommodation is preferred, some small locally-owned motels in Kingston are available. Bob's Lake Country Motel 580-564-4424, Lakeway Motel 580-564-2411. See www.travelok.com for more options.
