

GORANI

- Translation: Dance from Daron, a region in former West Armenia, present Anatolia (Turkey ).
- Music: 5/4, Anoush - Armenian Dances (Van Geel Records 98/07).
- Source: Artushat Karapetian, Pedagogic Institute, Armenia 1988.
It is a mixed line dance. Originally the men danced from right to left (RLOD) and the women from left to right (LOD). The movements are slow and the music has a serene atmosphere. This is connected with moving partly in RLOD which was traditionally connected with mourning or death. Some researchers tend to believe that Gorani is connected with the god of battle Khor and that it is symbolic to misfortune that one may encounter in life.
Gorani is derived from Khergour, the name of a mountain in Daron. Khergour was nicknamed Khor because the people believed that this god lived on the mountain. Khor was worshipped in time of suffering. The dance was also performed as part of a suite of dances from the Daron region by the former State Dance Ensemble in a choreographed form by Azad Charibian.
The song dates back to Middle Ages and was originally a love song performed on celebrations in Daron, Sasoun and Shatagh. The text has been changed frequently. There are many versions of the lyrics and nowadays the content is usually melancholic and deals for example with bad harvest, a plea for rain, a lost love etc.

Lyrics GORANI

En Msho dasha kasin manr ou hiner

Snouchik me keshnchi ir djanin mernem
Gorani, gorani, jarem gorani
Khabrik me khosatsir darderous degner

The field of Moush, they say, was a small and strong place
She is breathing, I'll die for her body
Gorani, gorani, my beloved Gorani Promise some news, that is medicine for my pain

Alashkert Manazkert duran ou khotov

Mer jari tsotsere akh anoush hofov
Gorani gorani, jarem gorani
Yes kitem aslik jar, shat kharoti

Alashkert and Manazkert are empty and full of grass
My beloved's body smells nice
Gorani Gorani my beloved Gorani
I know my brave beloved misses me very much
